

What is a standard drink?

In Australia, a standard drink refers to a drink that contains 10 grams of alcohol. Below are examples of some product types, alcohol volumes and standard drink measurements.

DrinkWise.org.au

Calculations confirmed by the Australian Wine Research Institute.